New Spring Styles Presented By AWS Tomorrow Evening

FASHION SHOW BEGINS AT 8:00

New spring fashions will be shown in the Morris Dailey auditorium tomorrow night at 8 o'clock when the AWS presents their annual fashion show, according to Leona Solon, acting president of the society.

SPECIAL STAGE

A special stage will be set up in the auditorium for the style display. Selma Kann is in charge of the decorations and stage settings, which will follow a spring motif, according to Miss Solon.

MEN'S APPAREL

Men's apparel for the show will be provided by Spring's, and Blum's will furnish the women's clothes and appropriate hair do's. Miss Vivian Young, buyer for Blum's, is in charge of preparations for the affair; while Miss Marian Noonan, also of Blum's, will act as commentator for the display. Jean Ellsworth is assisting Miss Young in the preparations.

WOMEN MODELS

Women models for the affair are, according to Miss Solon, as follows: Rutheda Elliot, Jeanne Briggs, Vivian Erickson, Norma Welby, June Bengard, Lois Ben-

MEETING OF JUNIORS TODAY AT 12:30

Election of officers for the spring quarter of the school year will be the order of the day in the junior class meeting today at 12:30 in Room 24.

With such events as the junior-senior Sneak Week, Spardi Gras, and other important spring doings coming up, the officers elected today should be of the best calibre the class can offer, according to the present proxy, Hugh Staley.

For this reason Staley urges all juniors to attend the meeting in order to secure a representative vote. Of course the other business of the day will just be about the all-junior party which will be thrown "free gratis" in the near future. All of you who are interested in getting something for nothing should be at the meeting to discuss the party.

GO TO THE FAIR

Stillwell III

Although sick in bed with the flu, Mr. Joe Stillwell, superintendent of grounds and buildings at San Jose State, is carrying on his work as usual. Mr. Stillwell, who was in bed all last week, is expected to resume his activities here in the near future.

DEADLINE FOR MANUSCRIPTS MOVED AHEAD

The deadline for handing in manuscripts for the Annual Original Music Composition contest has been extended to Friday, April 7, according to George T. Matthews, of the Music department.

Manuscripts should be submitted without the name of the composer. They will be numbered, and the numbers filed for future reference. Entries of any serious type are acceptable, whether in large or small form.

Twelve cash prizes will be distributed among the winners, and the best compositions will be performed at a special concert.

All contestants must have been registered here last quarter.

Pre-Legal Club Meets Monday

The Pre-Legal club will hold its first meeting of the quarter on Monday in Room 11 at 12:30. Owen M. Broyles, adviser to the club, has announced.

Declares Broyles, "The club is growing in importance; lawyers and men of other legal professions are becoming more and more interested in the activities of this organization."

All Pre-Legal students and anyone else interested are invited to attend the meeting.

Schedule For Fair Day Events

Here is the schedule of events for Saturday:

7:55—Special train leaves Southern Pacific depot.

9:15—Special train arrives at Oakland pier.

9:50—Ferry arrives in San Francisco.

10:00—Key System ferry leaves Ferry building.

10:15—Ferry arrives at Treasure Island.

2:00 p.m.—Orchestra and A Capella choir concert in Mission Trails building.

7:00 p.m.—Variety show with Jim Bailey in Festival Hall.

9:45, 10:45 & 12:15—Return trains to San Jose. 12:15 is the last train. However, students may return Sunday.

Be sure to take Treasure Island Ferry at the Ferry building from Key System dock.

DEAN TO SPEAK

Y.M. DINNER TONIGHT

The first YMCA Association Dinner of the spring quarter will be held tonight at 5:59 p.m. in the Rose Room of the city YWCA with Dean Charles B. Goddard as guest speaker for the evening.

Dean Goddard has chosen the topic of "Where Do We Go From Here" for his talk, which will be the chief event of the evening.

Under the chairmanship of Royal Scott, entertainment, stunts, and group singing will be featured. Other members of the committee include Frank Gettinger, Lester Ruddell, Ken Bailey, and Ed Bul-lard.

Tickets for the dinner should be purchased immediately in Room 14. Price is 26 cents.

State Business Group Meets Saturday

Expected to attend an afternoon session of a meeting of the State Conference on Business Education to be held at Hotel Whitcomb in San Francisco on April 1 are all business education teacher training students, according to Dr. Earl Atkinson, head of the Commerce department.

This arrangement will enable students to take advantage of the special train rate offered San Jose State college students for the Fair. The conference will be held from 1:45 to 3:45.

Speaking at two of the four divisions of the afternoon session will be Dr. Atkinson and Mr. Weaver Meadows of the Commerce department.

Named on the reception committee is Mr. Guy George, also of the Commerce department.

SWIM FROLIC PRACTICE STARTS

Practice for the Swimming Extravaganza, annual water performance sponsored by the women's Swimming club, scheduled for May 22 and 23, will begin Monday at seven o'clock in the college pool.

Any co-ed who is at home in the water and reasonably proficient in the standard strokes or diving will be cordially welcome to participate, Miss Gail Tucker, faculty advisor, announced today. O.K.'s from the Health office must be brought by each girl.

This year's production will be outlined at the initial practice Monday night, and each girl will be given a chance to signify what parts she wishes to try out for. There will be an opportunity for girls to assist in costume design and construction as well as plot development.

Stater's Trek To Treasure Island On Saturday

GALA DAY BEGINS AT 7:55 A.M.

Saturday is the big day for all Exposition-minded San Jose State college students.

Why?

Because on Saturday at the Golden Gate International Exposition on San Francisco's Treasure Island, San Jose State Day is being celebrated in a big way.

Beautiful girls, singers, dancers, the A Capella Choir, and Orchestras, will all take part in this gala celebration that will begin early Saturday morning with a train ride.

BUY TICKETS

Tickets for the train trip are now on sale in the controller's office for 85 cents round trip. The return trip from San Francisco may be made as late as midnight Tuesday, according to Southern Pacific officials.

Admission tickets are also on sale at the controller's office at the present time, and should be purchased at once. They sell for 50 cents and admit the bearer to the Fair grounds as well as to one of the following exhibits: Midget Village, Palace of Fine Arts, or the Chinese Village.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

Mr. William Erlendson will direct the sixty-voice A Capella Choir from the Mission Trails building at two o'clock, while Orchestras, modern dance group, under the guidance of Miss Marjorie Lucas, will dance between the choir numbers.

James Bailey's variety show will include an eleven-piece orchestra with such well known campus singers as Margaret Morris, Mae Zimmerman, and Tommy Gifford and others.

7:55 DEPARTURE

Don't forget—the train leaves the Southern Pacific depot on Cahill street Saturday morning at five minutes to eight, (7:55) and Staters will get to the Fair grounds about 10 o'clock.

The admission tickets are good any time while the Fair is open.

Players Try Out Tomorrow For Clancy Drama

Tryouts for James Clancy's "Trouble In My Prayer" will be held tomorrow at 4 o'clock in the college Little Theater.

Ten roles, five men's and five women's, will be available for San Jose Players' first spring quarter production written by the college speech instructor.

Scripts, now on reserve in the library for interested students, may be read during tryouts.

Expected to be completely cast following tomorrow's tryouts, the play will go into rehearsal early next week, according to Mr. Clancy, who will direct the production.

A tragedy, the play deals with the problem of the individual living in a modern democratic society when that nation goes to war, and a war dictatorship is set up.

With the realization that he, as an individual, cannot accept either of the two extremist forms of government, he is finally crushed between the two.

GO TO THE FAIR

Exhibit Now In Art Building

An exhibit of student work done during the winter quarter is now on display in the Art building. This display which contains work in various media will remain on view through April sixth.

Included in the exhibition are still lifes in oil, design, houses rendered in oils, work done in pastels, charcoal and plates showing the relation of circular forms.

There are also several plates of figure design, a book cover design and a design for a panel screen done in air brush.

PEACE DISCUSSION

YW Supper Tuesday Night

The initial spring quarter YWCA Association Supper is scheduled for Tuesday evening, April 4, at the city YWCA in the Rose Room from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

DEBATE PROGRAM

Betty Jeanne Brownlie, chairman for these monthly meetings, announces that a program of debating on a vital question among three outstanding and interesting speakers has been arranged.

"The Best Ways to Peace" are to be discussed by three viewpoints of pacifist and collective security positions. Miss Beatrice Goldman, history instructor at San Benito county junior college, will give her impressions and views on the attitudes of pacifists and militarists.

SETTLES SPEAKS

Mr. Claude N. Settles, sociology instructor on the local campus, will conclude the debate with questions after Mr. Stephen Peabody, pastor of the Congregational Church and popular speaker on the campus, has given the pacifistic viewpoint on the situation.

Tickets for this supper program may be purchased for 36 cents in Room 14.

May He Stay A Long Time . . .

As a fitting gesture yesterday afternoon a huge crowd of students, sports writers, and townspeople witnessed the debut of "Pop" Warner, the greatest football mind in the country, as advisory coach of Spartan football activities.

With an outstanding turnout in both the number and calibre of players; with the most potent schedule ever attempted in the history of the college; and with "Pop" planning to utilize all his pet offensive brain chills from the famed Warner formation, next season has all the ear-marks of a banner year that should easily surpass the records established by the high scoring teams of the last two years.

Yesterday, with Warner on the scene, the whole turnout, from lowest sub to "cinch first stringer", was on his toes, showing an intensity that would normally be unusual even in the height of the fall season. If that attitude continues, and there is no reason why it shouldn't, the outcome of next fall's gridiron activity is almost predictable.

We realize, all of us, how fortunate we are in having at our disposal the unchallenged Warner football science, his sincere inspiration for skillful play and sportsmanship, and the genial good fellowship that "Pop" has personified throughout the years he has headed football aggregations.

Therefore, we want to say to Mr. Warner that we're glad to have him with us and we hope that he will stay for a long, long time.

—WORK.

Washington Square Footnotes

We, the students, are subject to a decidedly distasteful situation. I have reference to students actually stealing our personal property. During the past two quarters this condition has gradually become really serious and of a universal nature.

This can be controlled if each of us would make a sincere attempt to refrain from placing temptation before these individuals.

By taking more care of our books and possessions the petty crime wave that is gradually obtaining a greater foothold on the campus could be reduced.

In the history of the school this matter has never reached the heights or seriousness which it has today.

So, for our own sake, and for the betterment of the school, whenever you witness anyone making away with any article they do not own, if you would report this matter to the college officials, you would assist in removing these offenders from our environment. Let us each do our part in cleaning up the situation as rapidly as possible.

If you have any suggestion on how to change this situation, please feel free to comment in the Daily.

San Jose State college greets you, "Pop" Warner! Sincerest welcome! May your stay be successful and pleasant.

To the student council, Spartan Daily staff, and Mr. Dwight Bentel, I want to express my appreciation for placing me in the editorship this quarter.

VOICE OF REACTION

By BILL McLEAN

Axiom for capitalists; Oppression is the better part of squalor.

Not that I am against capitalism. If I were I wouldn't say anything about it. I doubt if I would make a good communist; I never had any talent for standing on soap-boxes.

Now you will note that the above quip is typically the type of uninspired banter that usually goes for criticism of communism. It is so easy to make fun of something you don't like. Appealing to the emotions is the best method for putting over an argument. Reasonable arguments require that the person listening is able to think. Such a case is too rare as to be taken into account.

Sometimes it seems that Hitler is pretty silly. He gets along, of course. But why can't he be nice sometimes. He seems to have an enemy complex. What is the point of his letting his press malign the United States and persons in the United States, when seemingly he can gain nothing at the moment by such activities? German papers never say any nice things about anybody, with the exceptions of Italy and Japan, of course. And the Germans have considerable contempt for the Italians and have no particular respect for the Japanese, at that. Especially since their recent triumphing in Czechoslovakia and Roumania. Pretty soon the German state will be expressing its dislike of every other nation in the entire world and extolling its own superiority.

Mr. Hitler, Hell is ready.

Hair! Hair!

The poor men always get it in the neck. Take this AWS fashion show Friday nite, for instance. Everything's planned so that the whole show is gonna go to the gals' heads . . . they're gettin' free finger waves an' stuff . . . but the guys have to fix their own hair. 'Taint fair!

Neglected male models have been heard muttering jealously that the dames will have to have their hair looking pretty doggone nice if they want those nightmarish contraptions commonly known as spring hats to show off to best advantage. "If the hats were bigger, it'd be all right," they declare, "but some of these diminutive head coverings are so small it's a wonder they cover one inch of milady's head."

Ennyhoo, the damsels will swing jauntily along Friday night with burnished, shampooed locks; while skulking behind them in an inferiority complex-ish manner will be the forgotten, finger-waveless males! 'Taint right . . . it's a woman's world!

The Campus Peace committee will meet Friday, March 31, at 12:15 in Room H.E. 27. We have lots of work to do on the Student Peace poll, Peace Week, and National Peace Day which is April 20. Will all those interested please be present.

PI Epsilon Tau: Important meeting next Monday, April 3, at 7:30, Room 1 of the Home Economics building. The dinner, new members, and general business needs discussion. All members please attend.

CHIEF SPARTAN

Glendale, California's gift to San Jose—190-pound Captain Bob Titchenal who takes care of the snapper back chores in addition to backing up the line with his signal calling brother, Dave.

Monk Martin, Ace Diver, Lost For Season

San Jose State's varsity swimming team, which opens its spring schedule Friday night, April 7, will be without the services of Monk Martin, ace diver, for the remainder of the year, announced Coach Charlie Walker yesterday.

Martin is now on a tour with a group of swimmers and divers at the Los Angeles Ambassador Hotel, and he will spend the summer in the east. Although he is sorry to see Martin go, Walker states that the tour will be of benefit to the Spartans.

On the night of April 7 the San Francisco Olympic club will come to the Spartan pool and compete against both State's varsity and freshman teams. The frosh will swim against the second Olympic club squad.

Other varsity swimmers who will be missing from the squad this quarter are Delos Bagby, crawl and backstroke, and Len Goodwin, 220- and 440-yard man.

Although the freshmen lost Bob Slater, Bill Pillsbury, and Junior Takahashi, gains were made when Ted Burnis, newcomer from Salem, Oregon, and Leonard Tannar, former swimmer who was out with a

Peregoy Loss Weakens Fullback Spot

With Glenn S. "Pop" Warner at the helm for the first time, 73 Spartan gridgers donned mole skins yesterday and went to work under the direction of the "master".

"Pop" started the practice with a vengeance and actually put the boys through some body contact with a little tackling and ending up with signal drill in which his new charges got their first taste of Warner offense.

NEW FACES

Many new faces dotted the lineup, but probably most noticeable by his absence was Carlton Peregoy who was billed to fill the fullback role along with Leroy Zimmerman. Perry, due to scholastic difficulties, will probably not be out for practice at all this spring.

A husky lad handling the back spot along with Zimpy was Wilson who might be the answer to the present dilemma.

Head Coach Dud DeGroot voluntarily remained in the background and gave "Pop" full reins to boss the show and give himself a chance to brush up on the 1939 edition of the absolute in double winged formation as handled by the "old fox" himself.

NOTICEABLE CHANGE

As the most noticeable change from Dud's offense was the use of the quarterback in which "Pop" seemed to use the up man as a decoy and possible lateral man in contrast to his usual blocking chores. Dave Titchenal, who is probably one of the best blockers on the squad, will get a chance to show some of his ball-packing ability in addition to cracking down opposing ends and fullbacks.

Seventeen tackles gave the appearance of more beef than the Washington Square institution has seen in a great while. Bob Bronzan and Truck Tornell, veterans at 210 and 225 respectively, and an army of reserves make this spot look like the most formidable of the outfit.

TWIN BADGER CAPTAINS

They are only a couple of little guys, but twin brothers Jim and Art Walsh head the mighty Wisconsin Badger boxing team that invades San Jose on April 17 to meet our Spartans. Co-captains Jim and Art weigh 127 and 120 pounds respectively and will meet local ringmen Dale Wren and George Konoshima.

SPARTAN NINE MEETS GAUCHOS TODAY AND TOMORROW

Coach Walt McPherson and his baseball contingent will play host to the Santa Barbara State nine today and tomorrow afternoons at the Spartan Field, both games starting at 3:15.

SPARTANS WIN TWO

On their southern tour last week, the San Jose team defeated the powerful Gauchos, 9 to 8 and 2 to 1 in two bitterly fought contests.

Today the Santa Barbara outfit will come to town seeking to knock over the Staters on their own field.

The Spartans will not be at full strength against the Gauchos due to the loss of catcher Tony DeCruz, the Spartan bulwark behind the plate. DeCruz's loss will also weaken the hitting power of the Spartans. Lou Ales, who looked promising against the Gaels Tuesday, will get the starting call.

GOOD PITCHING

Santa Barbara, boasting one of the outstanding nines in the south, fell before the "hot" Spartan team twice last week, with Tony Nacimento and Leroy Zimmerman pitching effective ball. McPherson will probably start these men again in an effort to topple the Gauchos.

The San Jose nine did not look very effective on Tuesday against the hard-hitting St. Mary's team, and according to Coach McPherson, there will be a revamped lineup in order to put the best combination on the field this afternoon.

Herman Zetterquist, who spends his time in center field when he isn't pitching, has shown vast improvement in the last four games, and may get the mound duties today ahead of Nacimento or Zimmerman.

Winged 'O' Team Brings Stars Here Saturday

Head Mechanic Glenn (Tiny) Hartranft will give his multi-cylindered Spartan track and field machine its first trial spin against dual competition here next Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. against the potent Olympic club team.

With only a remote chance of winning out against a galaxy of Winged "O" Stars, the local track mentor will sandwich in his freshman team to make it a three-way affair.

TOP NOTCHERS

The Olympians will bring along most of their gold-plated performers, and track and field fans will get a chance to see some of the nation's outstanding BVD artists in action at Spartan Field.

Coach Charley Hunter boasts one of his strongest teams in Olympic club history and has such headliners as Nutting, Dean Warmerdam, Moore, Levy, Todd, and Mitrom to back up his belief.

EX-SPARTANS PERFORM

Lowell Todd, who used to pitch the javelin around for San Jose with a great deal of success, will find another ex-Spartan, Broad-jumper Al Parr, performing for the Olympic club.

Hartranft will send out big Don Presley against Phil Levey and Montgomery, ex-Stanford stars, in the weight events. Tony Sunseri and Al "Mickey" Finn are Spartan hopes in the pole vault against Warmerdam, former Fresno State star.

Another former Stanford star, Ray Dean, will pound the cinders in his 100-yard dash specialty, after having completed a successful indoor campaign in the sprints.

Saturday's meet will give Hartranft a chance to preview his spring quarter influx of junior college transfers which include Half-Miler Bob Woods from San Mateo junior college; Carmen and Creighton Groeling and Dave Siemon, all from Fullerton jaysee who should strengthen San Jose in the sprints and hurdles.

Eight Teams In Ball Tourney

The second annual soft ball tournament will get under way one week from tomorrow, with eight teams battling for the title, according to an announcement made by Coach "Tiny" Hartranft yesterday.

The tournament was started last year, and is continued because of the tremendous success it made.

Last year the powerful 1000 Club won the tournament hands down. This team will defend their title this year, and according to Hartranft, the league will be much tougher.

Frosh Nine Hits Losing Streak; Face St. Mary's On Friday

By FRANK BONANNO

Hard luck has been on the trail of the freshman baseball nine since the beginning of the current season, and Coach Hovey McDonald is at a loss as to what he can do to remedy the situation.

The frosh have won only two games in seven starts, which found them losing heart-breakers to Santa Clara's frosh, 10-8, and St. Mary's pairings, 7-1. The frosh nine rounded into shape near the end of last quarter, but the start of this quarter found matters wrecking the entire plans of the freshman team.

Football practice and scholastic difficulties have robbed McDonald of Anello, Ulliano, Ford, Kasparavitch, and Gomez. Anello's powerful hitting and Kasparavitch's effective pitching gave the yearlings what little success they have enjoyed this season.

McDonald must now find new

BROYLES ON EFFECTS OF FEDERAL TAX

"The decision of the Supreme Court to allow taxation of state and Federal employees is just another step toward centralization of governmental powers," Owen M. Broyles, social science professor, declared yesterday.

FEDERAL POWER

Such a decision represents, according to Broyles, a definite move in the direction of more power for the Federal government, less for the state.

"The question now," Broyles pointed out, "is: Will salaries be raised in order to meet the drain of taxation? In view of the present wave of economizing, the answer will probably be no."

TAX REVENUE

Taxation of state employees will garner an estimated revenue of $16,000,000 a year, according to an economic journal, but it is impossible, Broyles admitted, to estimate the revenue states will draw from taxation of Federal employees.

"Another point raised by this decision is: Why draw the line of tax demarcation at salaries?" Broyles added, "Why not include rents, for example, or other types of income? No definite line can be drawn."

"In the long run," Broyles concluded, "the measure will balance itself. The form may be changed but the situation will remain the same in regard to the state and Federal employees."
